

THE PRIMARIES COME TO CALIFORNIA! THIS TIME IT COUNTS!

PRESIDENT

Democratic Primary → We couldn't come to a super-majority consensus, but there were a lot of opinions and energy in the room. See the inside of this guide for our take on the candidates, listed in order of the number of votes received.

Green Primary → Cynthia McKinney

SAN FRANCISCO PROPOSITIONS

Prop A ✓ YES. $185 million bond for City Parks? Sure, charge it to the City's credit card.

Prop B ✗ NO. Early pension $ for old cops? We need young cops who are from SF.

Prop C ✗ NO. Vague wish to turn Alcatraz into a non-specific peace center.

CALIFORNIA PROPOSITIONS

Prop 91 ✗ HELL NO. Wants to use the gas tax for new roads only—oh wait, that's already a law.

Prop 92 ✓ YES. Cap community college fees & guarantee funding

Prop 93 ✓ YES. Yes to shorter term limits while keeping politicians focused on lawmaking—instead of alternating elections btwn state Senate and Assembly.

Props 94-97 ✗ HELL NO. 17,000 more slot machines? Big $$$ for rich tribes, a little $ for the state, and less environmental and labor protections.

Open this up for our take on the presidential candidates. For all the details on why we're voting this way, check the full version of this guide at <http://theballot.org/2008/sf>

This voter guide is 100% made by young people, for young people—and of course any other pissed off voters that want to know what we're thinking. No candidates or campaigns paid for any of this. We raised the money ourselves. This is the sixth straight SF election we've made a voter guide for, and we're just getting warmed up.

Do you want to help make our government reflect our values? Do you want to get involved in spreading the word, throwing parties, and turning out voters? Join the League online at <http://theleague.com/sf>

PISSED OFF VOTER GUIDE Vote February 5th • 2008

WHO WE ARE: The League of Pissed Off Voters!

- We are young America, the inheritors of the fortune and flaws our parents have created.
- We are the people that they don't expect to vote.
- We are pissed off AND we have a vision. We are organizing and building power, and we want you right by our side.

For the full version of this guide and more information about the ballot, go to: <http://theballot.org/2008/sf>

Paid for by the League of Young Voters PAC and Not Authorized by any Candidate or Candidate's Committee. League of Young Voters PAC, 45 Main Street, Suite 628, Brooklyn, NY 11209. William Wimsatt, Treasurer.

WHAT WE DO *OUR MISSION

We are a national organization that works in key cities and states to make politics relevant, fun, and meaningful to young people. We meet young people where they are, work on issues that affect their lives, and provide tools and training to make them viable players and winners in the political game.

WE WILL CHANGE THE WORLD BY

- Training our friends and peers to be sophisticated organizers in their own communities.
- Building multi-racial, multi-issue alliances.
- Lobbying at the local, state, and national level.
- Organizing voters, supporting candidates, and holding them accountable once they're in office.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS AS A VOTER

- The last day to register to vote is Tuesday 1/22.
- Don't know where you're supposed to vote? Call 311 in San Francisco or go to <http://www.mypollingplace.com/>
- Even if you've committed a felony or you're on probation, you can vote. As long as you're not on felony parole, you can vote. Don't let the Man disenfranchise you!
- Do you see something shady happening on Election Day? Call the Voter Fraud Hotline: (800) 345-VOTE.

WHAT WE LIKE

WHAT WE DON'T LIKE

CORPORATE TIES

GRASSROOTS TIES

	OBAMA Democrat	KUCINICH Democrat	EDWARDS Democrat	GRAVEL Democrat	CLINTON Democrat	McKINNEY Green	SWIFT Green	PAUL Republican
WHAT WE LIKE	Opposed the war from the start. Has focused on ethics and government transparency in Senate. He'd make the rich pay their fair share of Social Security. National polls say he has the best shot at winning in November. His inspirational, bi-partisan approach could break gridlock in D.C.	Only candidate who voted against the war. Supports lowering voting age to 16! Introduced a true universal, single-payer health care plan. He'd create a Department of Peace. Would end US participation in NAFTA and the WTO. Opposes death penalty.	He goes after corporations like a pit bull. Forced Hillary & Barack to match him on health care, eliminating Bush tax cuts, and carbon reduction targets. Only one of the Big Three opposed to nuclear. Proposes real health, mental and social services for veterans.	He might be more progressive than Kucinich! Wants to reduce US nuclear stockpile. Would withdraw from Iraq in 120 days. Opposes war with Iran and Syria. Would increase minimum wage to a living wage. Supports legalizing and regulating drugs.	Supports election day as a national holiday! She knows her shit. Universal health care plan would cover all kids. Supports pay raises for teachers and increase in minimum wage. Decent climate change policies.	Experience: 6 terms in House of Reps. Tried to eliminate federal subsidies for corporations. Introduced articles of impeachment against Bush. Challenged Bush on missing war $$$. Sponsored National Forest Protection & Restoration Act.	Moratorium on death penalty. Equalize school funding across the US. Require corporations to pay their fare share of taxes. Repeal NAFTA and CAFTA - FAIR trade not FREE trade. End war in Iraq now. Affordable Single Payer healthcare for all. Awesome on women's issues.	The only Republican opposed to the war and the "PATRIOT" Act. Opposes the death penalty on federal level, but supports it at the state level. We included Paul because he is getting a lot of attention from young people but DON'T BE FOOLED! HE'S SCARY!
WHAT WE DON'T LIKE	Supports ethanol and would consider nuclear and liquid coal (if we can reduce its CO2 emissions). Okay with private funding in schools. Supports troops in Afghanistan. See our issues with the "Big Three" Dems in the box to the right.	Lackluster campaign—little innovation or excitement. His crowds are old and white. His stance on fuel standards could be better. No plan for student loan relief. He's prone to spacey new age talk that marginalizes him.	Wasn't as progressive in 2004. One term in the Senate is his only experience in office. Stoopid $400 haircut gaff makes us question how sharp his campaign staff is. See our issues with the "Big Three" Dems in the box to the right.	Supported Alaska oil drilling back in the 60s, but now opposes. Opposes across the board pay raises for teachers. A couple of proposals make some of us nervous: replacing income tax with sales tax, and national initiative process like CA propositions. He's old as dirt.	Won't apologize for vote on Iraq war. Says she's "agnostic" on nuclear. Supports the Cuban embargo. Her surrogates keep talking about Barack's drug use. She's polarizing—lots of people hate her and would never support her. See our issues with the "Big Three" Dems in the box to the right.	Bad website with few specifics. Great environmental policy, but no clear, overall vision for climate change.	Never held elected office. She has little experience. Not a lot of specific policy proposals.	A hardcore libertarian, but he's anti-choice and opposes gay rights. Believes in "free market" solutions for health care & the environment. Is Isolationist. Sketchy racist past. He'd eliminate the Department of Education. Skeptical of climate change. Opposes public financing.
CORPORATE TIES	Lots of $$ from investment banks, real estate, lawyers, pharmaceuticals, nuclear (e.g. PG&E), health insurance. But no PAC $$ and little from lobbyists.	What corporation would give him money? He'd refuse anyway.	Lots of money from trial lawyers. No money from PG&E and other nukes. He doesn't take PAC or corporate money!	Obama and Hillary sneeze more money than he's raised ($380K). Doesn't take corporate donations.	Only Dem to take money from PACs and lobbyists. She's received the most corporate money of any candidate.	Silly rabbit, corporations don't care about Greens. They wouldn't take corporate $$ anyway.	Silly rabbit, corporations don't care about Greens. They wouldn't take corporate $$ anyway.	Opposes corporate welfare and influence over government. But he would eviscerate environmental, labor, and consumer regulations of corporations.
GRASSROOTS TIES	Worked as a community organizer in South Chicago, a civil rights lawyer, and a constitutional law professor. Has focused on outreach to young people like no other candidate.	Successfully fought to preserve public power as Cleveland Mayor. He's been reelected to congress five times while being a vegan, new age progressive.	Only major candidate focusing on poverty. As a trial lawyer, fought for people's rights against corporations. The dude is a populist.	Dude filibustered for 5 months by himself trying to end the Vietnam draft. His "cranky uncle" style speaks to Pissed Off Voters, and he's big on youtube.	Ran legal aid clinic for the poor, represented foster children and child abuse cases. She has strong support from lower income and less educated democrats.	Leading advocate in congress for victims of Katrina. First African-American woman elected to congress from Georgia. First woman to wear slacks in congress!	Youngest candidate. Building the Green Party in Texas! Got 30% of the vote for San Antonio City Council against well-funded opponent.	Excites young folk who never before felt inspired by a politician. Accepts no corporate donations. Gets 49% of his funds from small donations.

OUR ISSUES WITH THE BIG THREE:
Barack, Edwards, and Hillary all voted for the "PATRIOT" Act and support the death penalty, a border fence, and civil unions instead of gay marriage. Barack tried to fix the "PATRIOT" Act. Edwards opposes a full border fence.
